HE CHARGES MALICE.

Peculiar Action Against Receivers of the Wheeling & Lake Erie.

Some time since Christian Horning entered suit against Receivers Herick and Bickensderfer, of the Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad, for $1,000 damages to his reputation, by reason of a petition the receivers filed in the United States court during the late coal strike in which it was alleged that certain men and coal miners had stopped certain men working at Dillonvale and Long Run; also that the property of the coal company and Wheeling & Lake Erie railroad was in danger and asking for adequate protection, which was granted, United States deputies being sent to the region.

Horning was mentioned in the petition as a riotous person who was intimidating miners and endangering property. He lives at Wintersville, an inland town, twenty-four miles from the Wheeling & Lake Erie mines, and had not been near the mines before nor at the time of the strike. The court held on an answer filed by the receivers that the latter, in their capacity as receivers, were privileged against libel. An amended petition has been filed by Horning, charging the receivers with malice in filing the petition mentioning his name in connection with alleged conspiracy against the coal company and railroad property and intimidation of employees. The miners' union at Dillonvale is interested in the suit.

A GREAT EVENT

Is in Prospect for the A. O. U. W. Members for This Section.

Past Supreme Master Workman Tate, of the Ancient Order of United Workmen, will deliver a lecture at the opera house next Tuesday evening. He is said to be a most eloquent speaker. The subordinate lodges of the city are making great preparations for the event. His address in this city is the first of ten or twelve that he will make in West Virginia, and much good will no doubt result from his visit to this state. Immediately after the lecture Mr. Tate will be the guest of honor at a banquet at the A. O. U. W. temple, corner of Twelfth and Market streets, and a programme has already been formulated to give the distinguished gentleman such an ovation that the event will be memorable in the history of the order.

WHEELING PEOPLE

May Enter the Field in Opposition to Philadelphians

WHO ARE NOW AFTER THE JOB

Of Collecting the City's Garbage for Converting it Into Fertilizers—Wheeling Hile and Tallow Association May Make a Better Proposition than Golden's, Which is to be Favorably Recommended to Council.

Since the Intelligencer enlightened the public as to the position of the Philadelphia concern, headed by Mr. Golden, which proposes to take care of the city's garbage—for use as raw material for fertilizers—at a considerable saving to the city as compared with the present contract system of garbage collection, a movement on the part of local people has been started, in opposition to the Philadelphians.

For some time the Wheeling Tallow & Hile Association has been considering the matter of making a proposition to the city on the line of that made by the Philadelphia concern, and it is probable that when council considers the proposition of the outside parties, a counter proposition will be introduced for the Wheeling Tallow & Hile Association, although the association has not fully determined to take this step. Members of the association believe that they can make a proposition that will be of considerable more benefit to the city than that made by the Philadelphia concern.

If the Wheeling concern decides to enter the field in competition with Golden and his associates, the result will be one of added benefit to the city.

SOCIETY.

With her mother, as court commissioner, performing the ceremony, and her two sisters as bridesmaids, Miss Caroline Hamilton Pier was married to John Henry Roemer, says the Milwaukee. It was a wedding of a lawyer to a lawyer, and every member of the bridal party had been admitted to the bar. The bride herself was graduated from the Wisconsin law school in 1891, and has practiced with her two sisters, who were her bridesmaids, since that time.

The mother, who was the older member of the firm, has been a practitioner since 1889, while the father, Col. Colwert K. Pier, who died in April, 1895, was also a member of the bar. Mr. Roemer, who is associated with Attorney Christian Doerfler, of this city, was a graduate of the Yale law school in 1892, and has practiced in Milwaukee ever since. In 1889-90 he was military instructor at the Linsly Institute, in Wheeling. Mrs. Pier assumed the office of court commissioner, which enabled her to perform the marriage, in 1891.

It was a pretty wedding, although quiet and informal. At just 4 o'clock the wedding party entered the parlor of the Pier home, at 577 Van Buren street, to the strains of the Mendelssohn Wedding March, played on the piano by Mr. Frank J. Roemer, of Bellaire, O., a cousin of the groom.

Mrs. Pier, together with the Rev. W. G. Elliot, Jr., the pastor of the Unitarian church, entered from the hallway, followed by the groom, accompanied by the best man, Mr. L. R. Willey, an attorney of St. Louis, Mo., and Mr. Henry M. Hamilton, of Cedar Rapids, Ia., an uncle of the bride, who gave her away, and Major Courtland P. Larkin, who officiated as best man at the marriage of the parents of the bride, thirty-one years ago.

They took their places at the east end of the parlor, where the national colors were draped, this being the only decoration of the house. Then the bride, attended by her two bridesmaids, entered from the dining room, and with the groom took her place beside her mother and the clergyman, where the former pronounced the words which made Miss Pier Mrs. Roemer. The ceremony was concluded with a prayer by the Rev. Mr. Elliot.

Then there was a wedding dinner, at which intimate friends and relatives were guests. Among those from abroad were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Hamilton, of Cedar Rapids, Ia.; Dr. and Mrs. Howard Sackett, Miss Rice and Miss Irene Skinner, of Fond du Lac, and Congressman and Mrs. J. W. Babcock, of Neenah, and Dean Howard N. Ogden, of the Chicago law school, and Mrs. Ogden. The bride was attired in white satin with pearls, while Miss Kate Pier wore Nile green satin, and Miss Harriet Pier cream colored satin. Mrs. Pier wore black satin.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Roemer will take up their home at Thirty-first street and St. Paul avenue, Milwaukee.

ABOUT PEOPLE

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

Frank McCann, of West Union, is at the Howell.

George B. Gorty, of Charleston, was at the McClure yesterday.

Charles Hosford and C. F. Hosford were Sistersville guests of the Windsor yesterday.

Mrs. O. W. Koen and Mrs. E. B. Booth and daughter, of Mannington, are registered at the Stamm.

Miss Della Fullerton, of South Eolt street, returned home yesterday, after spending two weeks on a visit to her brother in Pittsburgh.

THE three-year-old boy of J. A. Johnson, of Lynn Center, Ill., is subject to attacks of croup. Mr. Johnson says he is satisfied that the timely use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, during a severe attack, saved his little boy's life. He is in the drug business, a member of the firm of Johnson Bros., of that place; and they handle a great many patent medicines for throat and lung diseases. He had all these to choose from, and skilled physicians tried to respond to his call, but selected this remedy for use in his own family at a time when his child's life was in danger, because he knew it to be superior to any other, and famous the country over for its cures of croup. Mr. Johnson says this is the best selling cough medicine they handle, and that it gives splendid satisfaction in all cases. Sold by all druggists.
